The James A. Duff & Owen M. Duff Memorial Trust funds are to be used “for various charitable purposes in North and South Litchfield Townships, including – but not necessarily limited to educational purposes in LCUSD #12, benefit of the Litchfield Public Library, improvements to the Lake Lou Yaeger Park area, beautification of the city of Litchfield and the improvement and expansion of its recreational and cultural facilities, and other charitable purposes within the Litchfield community.”

As with any Charitable Trust that award funds, a measure of accountability is expected of the organization to enjoy the benefits of those funds. The James A. Duff & Owen M. Duff Memorial Trust Fund expects that funds will be utilized for the outlined and intended project/service as quickly as possible. Confidence exists from the James A. Duff & Owen M. Duff Memorial Trust Fund that each organization awarded funds will exhibit accountability, produce results, and use the awarded funds as intended. The James A. Duff & Owen M. Duff Memorial Trust Fund Committee may request/inquire as to the status of products/projects/services funded. Future accountability may be requested by your organization.
